Q - 2 (a) Punjab is emerging as one of the prime transit routes for the drug trafficking trade that sources heroin from Afghanistan, the world's leading producer of illegal opiates. [08]
In the last 12 months, 160 Kgs of heroin from Afghanistan, destined for Europe, has been seized in Punjab. One kilogram of heroin is worth about Re 1 crore in the international market. While the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) has seized 125 kgs of heroin, the Border Security Force (BSF) has seized 35 kgs of heroin along the 564 km long Pakistan border in Punjab, since April 2005. It is estimated that the seized heroin is only 10% of the total quantum that is being smuggled through the border. During the last year, NCB had arrested 14 Indians and 4 foreigners (a Pakistani, a Kenyan and two Nigerians) in 12 cases of drug trafficking. Some of them were kingpins of modules and part of a larger drug Mafia which the enforcement agencies failed to crack.
Drug trafficking is not the only worrying issue. "Small arms and ammunition too are smuggled as part of the drug consignment," says Jadhav. Pistols and ammunitions made in Pakistan and China were found during recent seizures.
