- 12) Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA): It refers to the performance of a student in a given semester. SGPA is ratio of the 'sum of all the products of credit points and grade point earned by the student in all courses of the semester' and the 'total number of credits of all subjects offered in that semester'.
- 13) Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA): It refers to the performance of the student in all completed semesters and is equal to Cumulative Grade Point Weighted Average.
- 14) Transcript: A transcript issued to the student at the time of leaving the university will contain a consolidated record of all the courses taken by him / her, grades obtained and the final CGPA.

2 Students' Core Commitments

CHARUSAT is committed to nurture academic, personal and social values in the students; and expects the students to practice the following Core Commitments of academic, personal and social Responsibility.

ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE

Developing a strong work ethic and consciously doing one's excellent in all aspects of the university.

CULTIVATING, PERSONAL & ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Recognizing and acting on a sense of respect and dignity both by being honest in relationships and by upholding academic integrity.

CONTRIBUTING TO A LARGER COMMUNITY

Recognizing and acting on one's responsibility to the educational community, the local community, and the wider national and global society.

TAKING SERIOUSLY THE VIEWPOINT OF OTHERS

Recognizing and acting on the responsibility to inform one's own judgment; and engaging various and competing viewpoint as a resource for learning, citizenship, and work.

ENLIGHTENING, ETHICAL AND MORAL REASONING

Developing moral reasoning in ways that incorporate the other four responsibilities and using such reasoning in learning and in life.

3 Academic Life

CHARUSAT wants all students to achieve their highest academic potential and makes faculty and academic support resources available to assist each student in meeting his/her academic goals.

☛ Teacher

Students needing assistance with a specific course should first seek the help of the teacher. Maintaining continued contact with a teacher and staying informed of academic status in a course is recommended.

☛ Counselor

Each student has a counselor who is knowledgeable about the course the student is pursuing and available to help the student to any academic issue. In addition, the counselor is available to counsel students on all matters related to being a university student as well as on life issues.

☛ Libraries, Laboratories and Workshops

The university has established libraries, laboratories and workshops for an interactive and engaging learning experience.

☛ Attendance Policy

Every institute of CHARUSAT has its own attendance policy; students are required to fulfill the criteria of attendance. Students are required to understand and follow the attendance policy of their institute.

☛ Training and Placement Services

Training and Placement Services at CHARUSAT offers counseling on the choice of a course based on a student's abilities and career interests, as well as networking opportunities with recruiters for potential employment.

4 Academic Integrity

CHARUSAT strongly recommends honesty and integrity in all academic work.

Academic Integrity is an ethical practice that means students are achieving academic success fairly. It suggests that all results that are achieved are earned honestly.

Your education is an investment; not maintaining academic integrity may devalue your education, which affects the worth of your degree. Academic Integrity is essential for any society, as people citizens need to trust that who are in positions of authority have earned their credentials rightfully.

Students are expected to exhibit integrity by being truthful about their own academic work and properly acknowledging sources of ideas and information.

➤ Academic dishonesty in any form is not tolerated

Academic Dishonesty Includes:

- Assignment, such as requesting or accepting answers on a quiz or test from another student who has already taken it,
- Discussing test information to any extent with other students, transmitting quizzes or tests or answers to quizzes or tests electronically to other students via cellphone, email, etc.
- Including turning in someone's work as one's own (another student's, a purchased paper from an online source, etc.)

➤ Plagiarism is another form of cheating and academic dishonesty. Intentional or unintentional plagiarism is an offense

Plagiarism includes:

- Use to any degree of the ideas or words of one's source material without proper acknowledgement. Plagiarism typically takes two forms:
- Failure to acknowledge the use of an author's ideas or organization by footnote or identification of the source in the text of the paper.
- Incomplete paraphrase (mere rearrangement of syntax and substitution of synonyms for the author's words) is plagiarism.
- Failure to acknowledge the use of an author's words by quotation marks, as well as by footnote or identification in the text.
- You may consult your teacher or counselor to know more on how to avoid academic dishonesty, plagiarism and maintain academic integrity.
